

ACTIVITY DEBRIEF

NAME OF THE ACTIVITY: Visit to Aravali Biodiversity Park

DATE HELD: 23rd Sept 2019

PERSONS RESPONSIBLE:

Srishti Seth, Brajesh Kumar, Rohika Singla and Varsha Rana

OBJECTIVES OF THE ACTIVITY:

- make students understand the interdependence of living organisms
- appreciates the variety of nature around them.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION:

Students of grade 5 Visited Aravali Biodiversity Park on 23rd Sept. This forest is called Green lungs of Gurgaon and has only native species of Aravallis . Destroyed by illegal mining and revived by the initiative of Ngo -I am Gurgaon ABDP is a young eight-year-old forest. It's a beautiful result of the efforts and contribution put in by team I am Gurgaon, MCG and countless citizens, corporates and school students of Gurgaon. The purpose of the trip is to make students understand the interdependence of living organisms and appreciate the variety of nature around them. 40 students accompanied by 6 staff members was scheduled to visit Aravalli Biodiversity.

WHAT WENT WELL :

Students were able to explore the living things present in nature

SUGGESTIONS FOR IMPROVEMENT NEXT TIME THIS ACTIVITY TAKES PLACE:

- The site chosen should have been Tau devi lal park sector 56
- There were no seating arrangements for students
- No activity could be conducted.

