BRIEF DESCRIPTION:

The word decoupage comes from Middle French "decouper", meaning to cut out or cut from something. Decoupage is the art of decorating an object by gluing coloured paper cut-outs onto it in combination with special paint effects, gold leaf and other decorative elements. Commonly, an object like a small box or an item of furniture is covered by cut-outs from magazines or from purpose-manufactured papers.

When someone has made a decoupage craft then, that person has taken an object and used a special type of glue (Mod Podge) to adorn it with decorations. As mentioned, paper is the most common material used in decoupage, as it can be sealed with decoupage glue to make it look as if it was originally part of the object it is adorning. To this end, there are a plethora of different decoupage glues available that offer a wide variety of finishes and textures. Mod Podge is one of many available decoupage glues, each with a different consistency and finish.
